

ANNUAL REPORT

APRIL 1, 2013 – MARCH 31, 2014

Honoring textile traditions and promoting excellence and innovation in fiber art

"You probably didn't know you were into 'fiber art' until visiting this gallery/shop/library/all-around gem."

—Minneapolis Star Tribune, 2014

Letter from the Board President and Interim Executive Director

Happy Birthday to Textile Center!

We are pleased to report on the state of Textile Center in this, our 20th year of incorporation as a vibrant, essential nonprofit arts organization. In a year of transition and change, we had many programmatic highlights. Among these, we hosted innovative shows by: Philadelphia-based Leslie Pontz, an artist whose work in Textile Center's Joan Mondale Gallery was captured by Twin Cities Public Television for a short piece screened on statewide television over 200 times; Aino Kajaniemi, whose exquisite contemporary tapestry work complemented other Finnish art exhibitions at the Minneapolis Institute of Arts and the American Swedish Institute as a backbone to the nationwide celebration FinnFest 2014; and an exhibit of fiber artists hosted by Textile Center in Block E on Hennepin Avenue, with untold numbers driving, bicycling, and walking by.

Our education program spearheaded a new initiative, Live Fibers, which brought hands-on fiber artmaking skills to a new generation at a time when colleges and universities are eliminating them from their curriculum. We broadened our reach through new collaborations, a new website and launching events such as the DIY art-themed, make-and-take fundraiser Do & Dye, and our 20th Birthday Bash, which brought together our vast community of founders, artists, students, neighbors, crafters, and art enthusiasts in celebration of this organization which is truly unique in the depth and reach of our programing.

And, finally, just after the close of the fiscal year, we welcomed the new METRO Green Line light rail, with its Prospect Park stop just steps from Textile Center's front door. The years of construction are behind us, and we are situated in a unique place: at the cusp of exciting neighborhood development at a time when the fiber arts have never been more vital; and with the prospect of an exciting future ahead.

In the ensuing time, we've also faced significant tests—most notably, in the search for a new leader. The Board of Directors has met the challenge by hiring Nancy Lee, who has steered the ship of Textile Center's ongoing operations and programs during this interim period. She has been working closely with the board and staff, the community, donors, and key partners to assess the organization's current capacity and systems and determine how the organization can be strengthened in order to ensure a long and productive future. Nancy is also working with the board to prepare the optimal profile for a permanent executive director and assisting in the forthcoming comprehensive search for this next leader of our organization.

We were founded in order to be a hub and resource for all of you, and it's with your support that we continue to honor textile traditions and promote excellence and innovation in fiber art. Through your support we will continue to thrive as we work with the full range of makers—from novices and dabblers to artists who are recognized regionally and nationally for their exceedingly fine work. Thank you; we look forward to seeing you when you next visit the Center.

- 392 exhibiting artists

Joan Mondale Gallery

Blue World/Green World. Vibrant art quilts curated by the Fiber Artists Coalition revealed the beauty and pathos of our association to the natural world.

A Common Thread 2014. Textile Center's members display their latest fiber art works in this annual exhibition diverse in materials and textile techniques.

Cultural Conversions: Traditional Design in a Digital Age. Juxtaposed hi tech, ultramodern fiber techniques with an international sampling of cultural textile designs that inspired them.

Elemental Matter: Jerome Fiber Artist Project Grants Exhibition. The culmination of the four 9-month projects included bengala and eco dyeing, and sculptural and large scale felt pieces.

I Went to the Woods: A Collection of Laurie Jacobi Original Designs. Felted wool garments, blankets, art and accessories as a component of the Holiday Gallery Shop.

Shaping Space: Leslie Pontz. Dynamic sculptures that combined such disparate substances as crocheted metal, monofilament, wool, linen, jute, silk organza, and rusted industrial pieces—spanning the boundaries of perfection and imperfection.

Vox Stellarum: An Installation of Silk Itajime Panels and Sculpture. Artist Elin Noble said of her work: "I seek to fill the room with the transformative qualities of cloth in space."

"Museum curators, gallerists, art historians, are all beginning to realize that there is a very, very fine line between the craft medium, and fine arts--to the point where many, many times, it just totally disappears. I happen to think that my work belongs right in the middle of that conversation; it bridges that gap. I think that's kind of exciting, that this Center has understood that. And they were not afraid to present to their public something that is totally outside the box as far as what someone would think of as traditional crochet."

Textile Center Shop

Featuring fabulous fiber art from over 130
local to international artists from 32 states,
Canada and Spain, the Shop carries wearables, accessories, home décor, baby, and seasonal items. The only retail store of its sort in the region, it showcases one-of-a-kind works in a wide variety of fiber art techniques, plus kits, supplies, and more. The expanded Holiday
Gallery Shop takes place in November and December, and the 2014 featured artist was Laurie Jacobi.

Textile Center supported artists via consignment payments totaling $70,136 for both Shop and Gallery art sales.

EDUCATION & COMMUNITY OUTREACH

"There isn't much that would get me out at night in the cold, dark winter, but this is it."

—student, referring to Textile Center's Down and Dirty Pattern Drafting Class, January 9, 2014

EDUCATION PROGRAM FACTS & FIGURES

- 21 instructors and visiting artists
- 90 onsite classes for adults
- 18 field trips
- Adults: 659 (at Textile Center) + 759 (offsite) = 1418 students
- Youth: 1605 students

Over three thousand fiber art enthusiasts, beginners, master practitioners, and artists advanced their technical and creative skills, took artistic risks, and explored new avenues of work through Textile Center's education programs—classes, workshops, camps, seminars, demonstrations, and other activities both at the Center and around the region. In addition to the numbers above, Textile Center conducted fiber art demonstrations at: Art at St. Kate's; American Craft Council St. Paul Show; Craft'za, Craftstravaganza; Social Science at the Science Museum of Minnesota; Habitat for Humanity; Minnesota Lynx game; and the Minnesota State Fair.

Highlights in education this year include a trio of outreach activities partnered with the American Craft Council. In June, we joined their Library Salon Series: Craft Cage Match on their rooftop patio and coached participants in speed spinning with a drop spindle. In December, Salon participants learned cross stitch and made ornaments in star motifs from many different cultures. We wrapped up in April with all day demonstrations at the Craft Council show and a guided walking tour of the fiber art in the show.

We also reached out to more than 90 local college and university students through "Live Fibers," a pair of events funded by the Rosemary and David Good Family Foundation. Art, fashion and design students attended two open house style events where they had the opportunity to try different fiber art techniques and learn about Textile Center resources.

Jerome Fiber Artist Project Grants

This program, funded by the Jerome Foundation, advances the careers of emerging fiber artists, providing awards of $4,500 to four artists each year to pursue fiber art projects and to hold an exhibition as the culmination of the projects. In the 2014 fiscal year, the following Jerome Fiber Artist Project Grant recipients held their exhibition at Textile Center:

Moira Bateman
Marjorie Fedyszyn
Caroline Keefe
Chiaki O'Brien

Four emerging artists were identified for the next round, which are the Jerome Foundation 50th Anniversary Grants:

Susan Hensel
Allison Roberts
Kristi Kuder
Julie Sirek

Students watch Robbin Firth demonstrate wet felting

"Tonight I heard, 'When's the course catalog for January coming out? I want to ask for classes for Christmas!' Another young woman said she was so glad her friend convinced her to come; she couldn't believe what she would have missed. To a person, the students were enthusiastic and very gracious in their praise of the event. They seemed really tickled that all this was 'for them.'"

TEXTILE CENTER LIBRARY

"Textile Center – You have a wonderful haven for textile enthusiasts. With gratitude, [author] Nancy Wick."

September 19, 2013

LIBRARY FACTS & FIGURES

- 26,439 volumes
- 3,374 circulation
- 3,381 visitors
- 6,518 donated books, magazines, patterns and equipment

With the largest circulating fiber art collection in the country, the Library is a source of inspiration and serves researchers throughout the region. The Library's Author Series highlights textile writing with presentations by authors of fiber art books and other related publications.

Collections Included in the Textile Center Library

Besides Textile Center's own acquisitions, the backbone of the collection is comprised of the collections of 16 different guilds:

Crochet Twin Cities; Ladyslipper Needle Arts Society; Lakes & Prairies Smockers; Machine Knitters Guild of Minnesota; Midwest Machine Knitters Collaborative; Minnesota Contemporary Quilters; Minnesota Basket Weavers' Guild; Minnesota Quilters Inc.; Minnesota State Button Society; Minneapolis Modern Quilt Guild; Polymer Clay Guild of Minnesota; St. Paul Needleworkers; South Minneapolis Quilters; Upper Midwest Bead Society; and Weavers Guild of MN

Author Series

Carol James, Fingerweaving Untangled: an Illustrated Beginner's Guide Including Detailed Patterns and Common Mistakes and Sprang Unsprung: An Illustrated Guide to Interlinking, Interlacing and Intertwining. May, 2013

Nancy Wick, The Quilt Block Book: Fresh, Versatile Designs for Quilts, Clothes, Accessories, and Décor. September, 2013.

EVENTS

13th Annual World's Largest Textile Garage Sale

FACTS & FIGURES

- 1585 in attendance (includes volunteers, Preview and Garage Sale)
- Nearly $40,000 in funds raised for Textile Center programs
- 8193 Facebook page views from April 11-14, 2013 alone

This sale, held at the University of Minnesota's ReUse Warehouse, is the largest of its kind. Tons of yarn, fabric, tools and sewing machines are donated from the community, for reuse by the community, with surplus benefiting nonprofit organizations. The Garage Sale redistributes materials and equipment valued at approximately $40,000, reselling to people to reuse—thereby reducing waste of materials that might have ended up in the landfill. This truly is a green community event.

Spun Gold Award

Each year the Textile Center has the privilege of honoring a member of our textile community with the Spun Gold Award for a lifetime of dedication to the textile arts. Using the criteria of years of experience, innovation, contribution to the greater community, recognition by peers, preeminence, and excellence in the field, Textile Center was proud to honor Becka Rahn with this award of distinction.

An artist and ardent supporter of the fiber arts, Becka's many contributions to the field include educational initiatives and mentorship of emerging artists and educators in all capacities. With an eye toward innovation and new technologies, yet incorporating tradition in all of her endeavors, Becka adeptly bridges a balance between the art and craft of textiles—bringing the community along in the process.

Do & Dye: A Make-and-Take Fundraiser

Textile Center invited 13 textile guilds, artists, and art organizations to lead the community in an evening of DIY discovery, exploring new skills, and getting creative. 135 people participated in a vast array of art-making activities in many media, from glass and handmade paper to felting, fiber and more. The proceeds of over $9,000 benefited Textile Center's operations and programs.

Textile Center's 20th Birthday Bash

In honor of the organization's 20th year since incorporation, Textile Center welcomed friends past and present for silent and live auctions, raffle, birthday art-making activities, most creative party hat contest, cake, and a toast to Textile Center. The fundraiser garnered $21,100 for operations.

"I am an avid knitter, a sometimes tatter and I love the fiber arts. I support and believe in the mission of the Textile Center. I had fun volunteering [for the Garage Sale] last year and wanted to do it again. A good benefit was the ability to purchase a few things for the charity knitting group that I am involved with—money for the Textile Center, good yarn for projects for my group—a total win-win situation."

—2014 Garage Sale Volunteer

PROGRAM PARTNERS

In all of Textile Center's programs—education, exhibition, library, and more—we endeavor to share resources and knowledge with businesses, educational institutions, and other arts nonprofit organizations. These partners enable Textile Center to reach beyond the brick and mortar of our building into diverse communities to honor textile traditions and promote excellence and innovation in fiber art.

SUPPORT AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Thank you to all members, donors, volunteers, and friends who shared in supporting Textile Center's mission and work.

Members and individual donors provide 20% of Textile Center's total funding. With their support, we are able to provide programs that impact a variety of audiences, such as artists, organizations, youth, enthusiasts, practitioners, neighbors and national entities. Our programs are felt far and wide in part because of the participation of so many people.

Volunteers

In the fiscal year, Textile Center welcomed 162 volunteers, for 2560 hours of donated time. We launched a monthly volunteer email this fiscal year, providing an easier way to connect volunteers with Textile Center needs.

Leadership Circle

Members of this group contribute annual gifts of $500 and more. We would like to recognize this category of contributors for being stewards for Textile Center's future.

IN-KIND DONATIONS

We are indebted to the—no exaggeration!—hundreds of individuals, businesses and organizations who donated necessary services and goods that enabled Textile Center to fulfill our mission. A complete account of everyone who donated, including all who dropped off goods for the Garage Sale, would be too numerous to list. Please accept our heartfelt gratitude.

The following supporters provided in kind support at the $1,000 level and above.

Allegra Downtown
Minneapolis
Ginny's Fine Fabrics
Tim Harding
Nancy MacKenzie
Warren MacKenzie
Kelly Marshall
Andy Rahn
Erica Spitzer Rasmussen
The Valspar Foundation
The Yarnery

Field trip led by teaching artist Marjorie Fedyszyn.
