

TextileCenter

A national center for fiber art

ANNUAL REPORT

APRIL 1, 2017 – MARCH 31, 2018

Honoring textile traditions, promoting excellence and innovation, and inspiring widespread participation in fiber art.

"Through Textile Center I have evolved as a fiber artist. I still do the same thing—creating fiber art for my own enjoyment—but I'm no longer doing it all alone by myself. I do it with a great sense of being a part of a community."

—Mayumi Takahashi, Textile Center Shop and exhibition artist, Textile Center member, and member of the Textile Artists on Tuesday, a group that meets weekly in the Library

LETTER FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT & EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Fiber is First! When it comes to artistic expression among Minnesota residents 18 years and older, fiber art is #1, according to a recent study by Minnesota Compass and led by Wilder Research. It found that more Minnesotans participate in fiber art (including sewing, knitting, needlepoint, quilting, crocheting, and weaving) than any other art form!

We see evidence of this every day at Textile Center. During the past five years, building attendance has increased by 70%–26% this past year alone. We're proud to see that many of our exhibition receptions at Textile Center are becoming major events, drawing up to 200 people on a given evening.

Participation in our education programs for adults and youth has grown significantly, which is reflected in our 36% increase in education revenue from $109,598 in FY16 to $148,997 in FY18.

This enthusiasm for fiber art is also reflected in a 48% growth in individual contributions to our annual fund from $84,991 in FY16 to $125,991 in FY18.

Thanks to generous support from the Rosemary & David Good Family Foundation the Minnesota State Arts Board, and Aroha Philanthropies, we were able to expand our Youth Fiber Art Guild program to a fifth site: the Division of Indian Work on Lake Street in Minneapolis. Our Youth Fiber Art Guild brings monthly multicultural fiber art-making experiences to 4th- and 5th-graders through programs that serve low-income families in Minneapolis and St. Paul.

Textile Center was also honored to be selected by Aroha Philanthropies as one of 15 Minnesota nonprofits in its Seeding Vitality

Arts MN program, which is committed to inspiring and enabling “older adults to learn, make, and share the arts in ways that are novel, complex, and socially engaging.” With this support, we created our new and popular “Interlace” program that serves adults 55 and older through 8 weekly workshops that culminate in an exhibition and celebration at Textile Center.

Among our accomplishments this past year was launching an international touring program. In September of 2017, 16 Textile Center patrons took part in an exciting tour to Morocco. This coming year we are presenting a sold-out tour to Guatemala, followed by upcoming textile arts tours to Japan and India.

FY18 also marked year two of our five-year strategic plan, and we continued to make significant progress on our five strategic goals:

1. Lead the field;
2. Promote artistic excellence;
3. Deepen connections with core constituents;
4. Expand and diversify participation; and
5. Secure and invest resources well to sustain Textile Center for future generations.

How do we accommodate growth? This was a big question our Board of Directors and Staff addressed this past year. During our strategic planning process, which engaged more than 700 people in 2015 through focus groups and surveys, it became clear that we must improve and expand our facilities.

In April 2017 we engaged one of Minnesota's most renowned and award-winning architects, David Salmela, to help us plan our future.

Right: The Kiss, Mayumi Takahashi, WOW! Textile Artists on Tuesday.

What began as a discussion about renovation, soon moved to discussion about ways we could expand our current arts center or even look for another home nearby. It became clear that our vision for program expansion, as well as our guilds' space needs, requires more than our current 12,500 square feet of space.

FY18 became a year for seizing opportunities, including the acquisition of a parking lot at 3018 University Ave. SE, and negotiating a purchase agreement for a possible new home at 3300 University Ave. SE. As of the writing of this letter, our due diligence continues, and our Board of Directors will make a decision about whether or not we can proceed with this exciting possibility before the end of Fall 2018.

In 2019 Textile Center will celebrate its 25th Anniversary, and as we move toward this important milestone, we are embracing a “can-do” spirit that propels our organization forward.

We are setting the stage for an exciting new era of programmatic growth rooted in diversity, equity, and inclusion, and we can't wait to see what the future has in store for our national center for fiber art.

20,059 visitors to the building
(up 27% from the previous year)

"I love Textile Center. As an artist, volunteer, guild member, and instructor I feel welcomed, energized, and excited every time I step in the door. The Library always has a book, DVD, or tool that intrigues me. I participate in A Common Thread and a variety of classes. It's a great organization!"

EXHIBITION PROGRAM

EXHIBITION PROGRAM FACTS & FIGURES

- 29 exhibitions
- 287 artists exhibiting in galleries
- 97 additional artists exhibiting in the Shop

Textile Center exhibitions are supported in part by funds from the Joan Mondale Endowment

“There is ALWAYS fiber art in Textile Center’s main exhibit areas, the Library, the halls, and the Shop. These exhibitions inspire all of us to continue with our own fiber artwork with new energy.”

—Sharon Englund, member, volunteer, and affiliated guild member

Joan Mondale Gallery

Commemorating His Purple Reign: A Textural Tribute to Prince

March 9 – April 29, 2017

Marking the first anniversary of the death of one of Minnesota’s most famous sons, this exhibit, juried and curated by Dr. Carolyn Mazloomi of Textile Center’s National Artist Advisory Council, featured the work of 24 quilters from around the nation, including members of the Women of Color Quilters Network.

That’s How the Light Gets In: Reflections on Transitions

Barbara Lee Smith, May 4 – June 24, 2017

Personal, political, even a bit philosophical, Smith utilized a three-step process of painting, stitching, and collaging with fabric to express the changes that have given her pause to reflect on the relationship of light to environment.

Wildfires

Regina V. Benson, July 6 – August 26, 2017

This experiential textile installation composed of surface-designed burning monoliths, digitized hillside flames, celestial fires, and volcanic eruptions, explored our universal consciousness of both the beauty and fear of fire.

Loop-Rust-Skin-Mind:

4 Jerome Emerging Fiber Artists

Elizabeth Garvey, Julie Hassler, Kristin Hoelscher-Schacker, Catherine Missaghi;
September 5 – October 21, 2017

This culminating exhibition—about growth and the freedom to push work to new heights—marked the accomplishments of the 2017 Jerome Fiber Artist Project Grant recipients working in textile traditions, materials, and sensibilities. These grants provide funding for individual artist projects that inform and advance the development and creation of new work.

2017 Holiday Gallery Shop

Featured Artist: Penny Norman,
November 1 – December 24, 2017

A special selection of artist Penny Norman’s whimsical felted, upcycled gifts was featured among the handcrafted work of 100+ artists.

A Common Thread 2018: Annual Member Exhibition

January 8 – March 10, 2018

The annual exhibition brings together our community of textile artists for a celebration of work honoring textile tradition and innovation.

Artists in the Kitchen: 50 Works by Women Artists Inspired by 50 Women Chefs & Restaurateurs

March 21 – May 19, 2018

Recognizing the abundance of local culinary and visual art talent of Twin Cities-area women, this invitational exhibition forged a new partnership that celebrated the work of women artists in both the art studio and culinary worlds.

YOUTH PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Youth Fiber Art Guild™

October 2017 - May, 2018

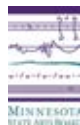

Our Youth Fiber Art Guild brings monthly multicultural fiber-art-making experiences to 4th- and 5th-graders at 5 sites that serve low-income families in Minneapolis and St. Paul, at no cost to our program partners. With instructor support, youth are empowered to explore their creativity and different cultures while making hands-on projects.

Youth Guild Sites

- Division of Indian Work
- East Side Neighborhood Services, Luxton Learners (ESNS)
- Hallie Q. Brown Community Center
- Neighborhood House
- Plymouth Christian Youth Center (PCYC)

Support generously provided by

Rosemary and David

This activity is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a Minnesota State Arts Board Operating Support grant, thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts and cultural heritage fund.

Indigo-Go!

August 26, 2017

This family festival of free fiber art making introduced 115 members of the community to the experience of indigo dyeing, kumihimo (Japanese) braiding, and ply split braiding – the latter using Somali techniques that are part of the Kebed weaving process, taught by elders associated with the Somali Museum of Minnesota. The event also featured a fiber art market of neighborhood adult and youth artists.

SUPPORT AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Thank you to all members, donors, volunteers, and friends who shared in supporting Textile Center's work to honor textile traditions, promote excellence and innovation, and inspire widespread participation in fiber art.

With this support, we are able to provide programs that benefit a variety of audiences, including artists, organizations, youth, enthusiasts, practitioners, neighbors, and national entities. Our programs make an impact far and wide because they engage so many people.

Volunteers

504 volunteers gave more than 3,080 hours of their time and talent to support Textile Center this past fiscal year!

Our Fiscal Year 2018 Volunteer of the Year was Celeste Grant, a weaver and sewer who has been game to volunteer for Textile Center's numerous events! She actively volunteered for the World's Largest Textile Garage Sale, the Worn Wear Tour which focused on making textiles more sustainable, and Northern Spark, during which she helped countless people weave on our Lawn-a-Loom into the wee hours of the morning! We love how excited she is about fiber art; at the Garage Sale, she volunteered one day, purchased Japanese kimono fabric, and showed up to volunteer the next day with a gorgeous blouse she had created from her purchase. We thank Celeste and all of our volunteers for their dedication to Textile Center and all things fiber.

Susan Leschke, Teaching Artist for Beginning Embroidery: Mod Flowers workshop.

Textile Center's new Athena Society for Planned Giving

"For each of us, Textile Center has enriched our lives, our appreciation and growth in the fiber arts, and led to many new friendships. Through our own planned giving, we are helping to sustain Textile Center's mission well into the future."

—2018 Athena Society Co-Chairs Cyndi Kaye Meier and Karen Weiberg

Named for the Greek goddess Athena, the patron of craft and weaving and an international symbol of wisdom and the arts, The Athena Society educates, encourages, and recognizes planned gifts to Textile Center. The Society's inaugural event was held on February 23, 2018, when we recognized the generosity of Lila Nelson, whose planned gift was a boon to Textile Center.

The Athena Society gifts will sustain Textile Center's excellence and ensure quality fiber art programs for future generations. Anyone who expresses intent to make a planned gift to Textile Center becomes a member of The Athena Society.
