

ANNUAL REPORT

APRIL 1, 2018 – MARCH 31, 2019

Textile Center's mission is to honor textile traditions, promote excellence and innovation, and inspire widespread participation in fiber art.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT & EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Textile Center is admired by fiber artists and enthusiasts from around the country, and often we're asked by visitors: "How did such a special place like this come to fruition?" The comment that often follows is: "I wish there was a place like this back home!"

We don't take Textile Center for granted. Before our founding in 1994, guilds had operated in isolation, with limited opportunities to exhibit and sell art, work with specialized equipment, or pursue training. It took tenacious founders to create a bold vision and to rally the guilds and fiber artists around a common cause.

We're proud to welcome more than 20,000 visitors each year! We embrace all forms of fiber art, including stitching, quilting, knitting, weaving, sewing, dyeing, felting, beading, wearable art, sculpture, installation, performance, social practice, multimedia, and so much more.

We are grateful to the support we receive from our 30 affiliated guilds, and more than 1,000 individual members. It takes a village for an arts organization like ours to thrive, and we have an impressive community of support.

And this vision has been carried forward for 24 years, with thousands of people providing stewardship through their time, talent, and treasure.

As we reflect on fiscal year 2019, which ended March 31, we can celebrate many successes:

- A record-breaking World's Largest Textiles Garage Sale that was just a few hundred dollars shy of hitting a record of $100,000 in gross sales.
- The launch of Interlace, a series of 8-week workshops designed for adults 55+. Textile Center was selected as one of 15 regional nonprofits to be part of of Aroha Philanthropies' innovative Seeding Vitality Arts Minnesota initiative for older adults. During this year we presented six workshops focused on embroidery, rug hooking, surface design, felting, and surface design, and through them we witnessed how learning, making, and sharing brought joy, connection, improved health and well-being to all who participated.

- Our robust education program that served more than 3,000 people during the fiscal year, and our national teaching artist program that featured eight artists from across the nation. This includes Susan Brandeis, Tom Lundberg, and Susan Moss, who taught and exhibited their work during our "Summer of Stitch, Stitch, Stitch."
- A tour to Guatemala in partnership with the nonprofit Multicolores, traveling around the mountains near Antigua, visiting Maya women artists known for their weaving, basket weaving, rug hooking, natural dyeing, and embroidery.

On the financial front, we're pleased to have ended fiscal year 2019 with a surplus of $41,937. We have seen substantial growth in Textile Center's programs. Our revenue have grown from $760,443 in fiscal year 2015 to $1,113,064 in 2019, and we were particularly to see our donations from individuals increased from $77,841 in 2015 to $146,398 in 2019.

All this is possible thanks to our talented staff and dedicated board of directors. We are grateful to our staff leaders: Director of Administration Nancy Gross, Director for Artistic Advancement Tracy Krumm, and Director of Finance Jayne Usery.

In fiscal year 2019, we said farewell to two wonderful staff members: Jenny Jones who served as our Director of Communications and Annual Fund, and Melisa Wahlstrom, our Education Manager.

And on our Board of Directors, we acknowledge the superb leadership provided by Margaret Anderson Kelliher, who served on our board for eight years, including four years on our Executive Committee as President Elect, President for two years, and Past President.

As you read this, Textile Center has been celebrating its 25th Anniversary, and we are entering into an exciting new era. We thank you for all your support of Textile Center, and we look forward to your engagement with us in the years to come!

"Textile Center is my creative place. It's where I can come and meet people who understand when I talk about a particular technique, or when I get excited about being able to do something, and who will feed me their ideas. I'll go home filled with creative ideas. It's just an exciting place to be, as well as a welcoming place."

TEXTILE CENTER SHOP

FACTS + FIGURES

- 116 Shop artists
- Payments to Shop artists: $75,894

Our Shop showcases handcrafted art created by local, regional, national, and international fiber artists. This program gives artists an avenue to sell their work; and Nancy Gross, who serves as our shop director, provides mentorship related to trends, pricing, packaging, marketing, and sourcing materials. Shop artists receive a percentage of consigned sales.

Shop intern Kaiqi Mai organizing merchandise in the Shop.

Textile Center Shop team exceeded the Shop's annual revenue goal for the fiscal year! Merchandise assortments supported programming via artisan textiles for the kitchen; sashiko, embroidery, and stitching supplies and tools, as well as two book launches: "Women Artisans of Morocco" by Susan Schaefer Davis, and "Rug Money" by Mary Anne Wise and Cheryl Conway-Daly.

The Studio Gallery showcased Cultural Cloth's artisan textile gifts from around the world. Our Saturday Meet the Maker Fest series connected shoppers and artists with trunk shows, demonstrations, "try it" opportunities and more during the holiday season.

June – August 2018

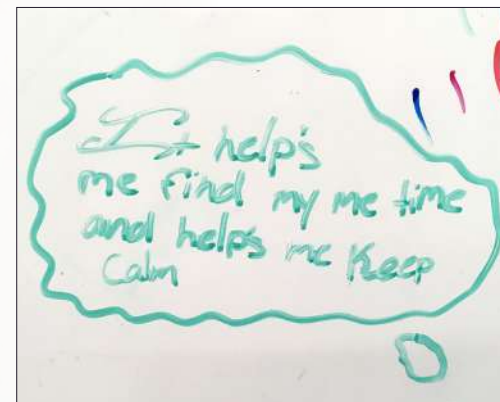

In the summer of 2018, we offered 24 textile camps for young students, ages 6–16, with a passion for the arts. Campers learn skills including weaving on a loom, caring for silkworms and dyeing their own fabric, sewing a garment, and even learn about the fashion industry by taking a trip to a Twin Cities design studio.

With one of the largest circulating textile-related collections open to the public, the Textile Center Pat O'Connor Library honors textile traditions, promotes innovation, and inspires learners throughout the region.

Textile Center Library has been busy! I've met several impressive visitors, including ones from Santa Fe, Cote D'Ivoire, Africa, Texas, Oregon, Virginia, Ohio, Saskatchewan Canada, Florida, Fort Worth, Sweden, Seattle, Durango, Nebraska, Potomac, and New York.

I give the Textile Center tour for as many people as I can when I see them in the hall looking confused at this new place they are exploring! I answer dozens of questions daily, ranging from fabric dyeing, embroidery, caring for vintage fabric items, "What is this?" art work, "Can you find something on 'this subject'" questions, and more. I'm happy to others learn more about the vast and ever-fascinating world of fiber art.

TEXTILE TOURS

Rug hooking has had a profound artistic and economic impact for Maya women in Guatemala, and in November 2018 we met a group of talented rug hookers in their homes as well as at the office of Multicolores, the nonprofit rug-hooking collective that put together our Textile Center tour.

During our Guatemala tour, we visited Rosemary (left), who welcomed us to her home, leading a ceremony, presentation and reception with her colleagues that was among the highlights of a tour that introduced us to so many talented Mayan artists – among them weavers, stitchers, natural dyers – in the mountains of Guatemala.

We are looking forward to more international textile tours in the next fiscal year, including trips to Japan, Morocco, and India!

– Karl Reichert, Executive Director

Textile Arts Tour of Guatemala: Oct 29 – Nov 8, 2018

Alongside Textile Center's Executive Director Karl Reichert, 14 tour participants joined an 11-day tour of Guatemala. Guatemala is a country steeped in textile traditions. The Maya people have a rich history of weaving and other crafts handed down through the generations. Our group visited the highlands, meeting artisans with a focus on textiles, and learning about the Maya culture and the Maya peoples' lives while visiting their homes and communities. The tour was co-presented with Multicolores, a Guatemalan nonprofit that supports talented and motivated women artisans through craft development, education and cultural exchange, led by Jody Slocum.

North Star Farm Tour Special Weekend Preview – September 28, 2018

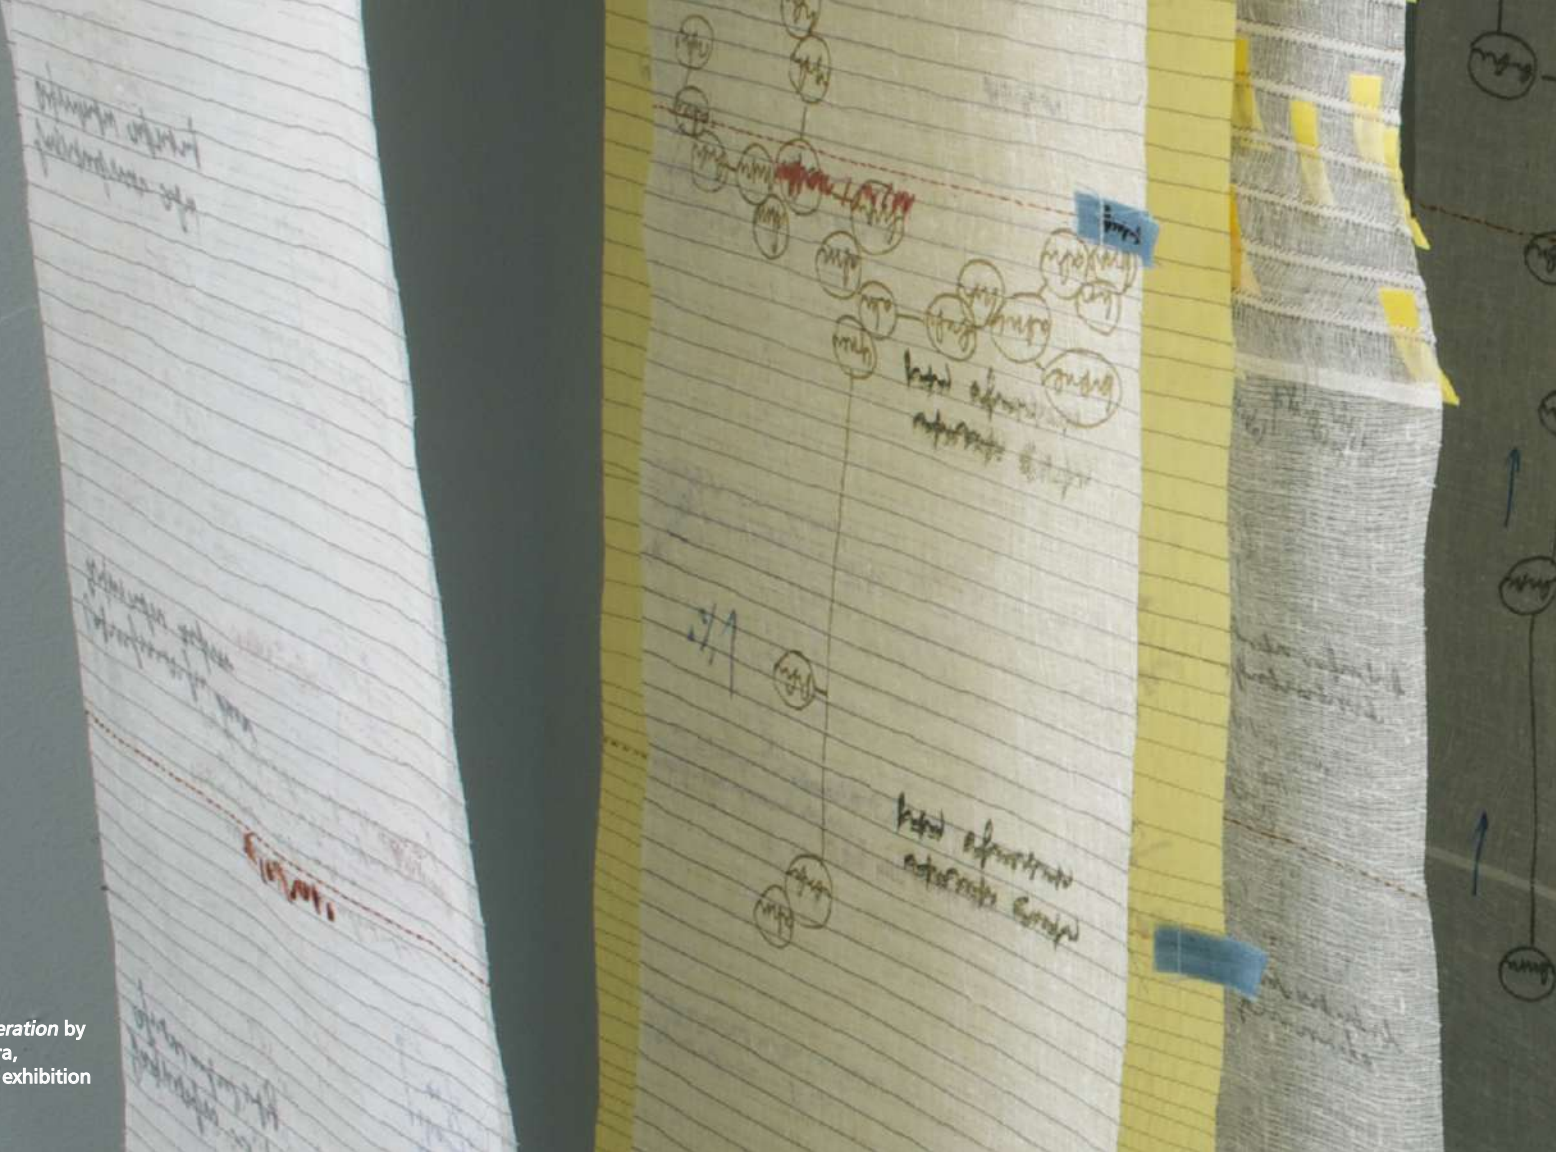

Forty four Textile Center member participants experienced four of the North Star Farm Tour locations. Day excursion participants were treated to a "progressive meal" made of farm produced ingredients. Along with the opportunity to learn more about the fibers and products produced at each farm, tour members were introduced to heritage sheep breeds, yak, cattle and more.

"All along, fiber art was meant to be contagious."

SUPPORT & CONTRIBUTIONS

With the support of our members, donors, volunteers, and friends, we are able to provide fiber art programs that benefit a variety of audiences, including artists, organizations, youth, enthusiasts, practitioners, neighbors, and national entities.

Our programs make an impact far and wide because they engage so many individuals

VOLUNTEERS

Textile Center would not exist without the generosity, commitment, and talent of our volunteers. These individuals share their time and talent each year in our library, our natural dye garden – A Garden to Dye For, and help with fiber arts demos at events across the region, such as the American Craft Council show, the North Star Farm Tour and Art at St Kate's. They prepare kits for youth programs, they help with gallery installations and Summer Camps. The largest group of volunteers participate in our World's Largest Textile Garage Sale each April, and the Garage Sale Pop Up in October.

In FY19, 575 volunteers gave more than 3,593 hours of their time and talent to support Textile Center. Thank you, volunteers!

Thank you to all of our amazing members, donors, volunteers, and friends who shared in supporting Textile Center's work to honor textile traditions, promote excellence and innovation, and inspire widespread participation in fiber art. We couldn't do it without you!

– Sharon Mulhollam, Community Engagement Associate

FY19 Volunteers of the Year: Debbie and Dave Johnson

After moving to the Twin Cities from Duluth several years ago, Debbie was introduced to Textile Center through her membership with the Minnesota Basket Weavers Guild, and she then became a member of Textile Center.

After Debbie's first volunteer shift, her husband Dave, newly retired, became curious about Textile Center, and soon began volunteering as well. They have volunteered with kit prep for our Youth Fiber Art Guild, working in our A Garden to Dye For, and helping out with other youth programs, both individually and as a couple. Dave currently spends time each week as a Library volunteer, working on an online reference project with Librarian Nancy Mambi.

In addition to volunteering at Textile Center, you may also spot Debbie up in the Shop, as we recently welcomed her to our Shop team. Debbie also teaches basket weaving workshops for Textile Center and is currently president of the Minnesota Basket Weavers Guild.

A big thank you for all of your help at Textile Center, Debbie and Dave!

THE ATHENA SOCIETY FOR PLANNED GIVING

Named for the Greek goddess Athena, the patron of craft and weaving and an international symbol of wisdom and the arts, The Athena Society educates, encourages, and recognizes planned gifts to Textile Center. The Society's inaugural event was held on February 23, 2018, when we recognized the generosity of Lila Nelson, whose planned gift was a boon to Textile Center.

The Athena Society gifts will sustain Textile Center's excellence and ensure quality fiber art programs for future generations. Anyone who expresses intent to make a planned gift to Textile Center becomes a member of The Athena Society.

Through her tapestries, Lila developed her own distinctive style of visual poetry, colored by her love of nature, mythology, and political beliefs. Her work was deeply rooted in traditional Nordic weaving and imagery. A supporter of Textile Center from its inception, Lila left a planned gift to Textile Center that has helped support major program expansion in the years following her death.

"For each of us, Textile Center has enriched our lives, our appreciation and growth in the fiber arts, and led to many new friendships. Through our own planned giving, we are helping to sustain Textile Center's mission well into the future."

Founders & Friends

In March 2016, Textile Center launched a Founders & Friends campaign, chaired by Marilee DesLauriers and John Cairns. The following people made multi-year pledges through March 2019 to support a bridge fund to expand youth education programs year-round, and to fund a planning process to identify space plan options for capital improvements. We gratefully acknowledge the generosity of our Founders & Friends who have helped bring momentum to Textile Center as it nears its 25th anniversary.

"When a baby is born, what do you do with them? You wrap them up in cloth. It's the first thing they feel – except for those hands of whoever is delivering them – the cloth. That's what we're making. I think it's beautiful."

– Paula Pfaff, Founder
